THREE ELDERLY MEN ARE AT THE DOCTOR'S OFFICE FOR A MEMORY TEST.
THE DOCTOR ASKS THE FIRST MAN, "WHAT IS THREE TIMES THREE?"

"274," CAME THE REPLY.

THE DOCTOR ROLLS HIS EYES AND LOOKS UP AT THE CEILING, AND SAYS TO THE SECOND MAN, "IT'S YOUR TURN. WHAT IS THREE TIMES THREE?"

"TUESDAY," REPLIES THE SECOND MAN.

THE DOCTOR SHAKES HIS HEAD SADLY, THEN ASKS THE THIRD MAN,

"OKAY, YOUR TURN. WHAT'S THREE TIMES THREE?"

"NINE," SAYS THE THIRD MAN.

"THAT'S GREAT!" SAYS THE DOCTOR. "HOW DID YOU GET THAT?"

"SIMPLE," HE SAYS, "JUST SUBTRACT 274 FROM TUESDAY."

On duty as a customer-service rep
for a car-rental company,
I took a call from a driver who needed a tow. He was stranded on a busy highway, but he didn't know the make of the car he was driving. I asked again for a more detailed description
beyond "a blue four-door."
After a pause, the driver replied,
"It's the one on fire."

After years of scrimping and saving, a husband told his wife the good news:
"Honey, we've finally saved enough money to buy what we started saving for in 1979."
"You mean a brand-new Cadillac?" she asked eagerly.
"No," he replies, a 1979 Cadillac."

I had just moved from an apartment to a house in the same small town. One day at the grocery store, I used the last of my personalized checks bearing my old address. The cashier examined the document and asked if everything on it was correct. I assured her that it was,
and she started to put the check in the cash drawer.
But then she inquired again if everything was accurate.
"Why do you ask?" I responded.
"Because," she replied, "my husband and I moved to this apartment yesterday, and I don't remember seeing you at breakfast."

After directory assistance gave me my boyfriend's new phone number,

I dialed him -- and got a woman.

"Is Mike there?" I asked confused.

"Umm, he's in the shower," she responded.

"Please tell him his girlfriend called,"

I said and hung up.

When he didn't return the call,

I dialed again. This time a man answered.

"This is Mike," he said.

"You're not my boyfriend!" I exclaimed.

"I know," he replied.

"That's what I've been trying to tell my wife for the past half-hour!"

At a dinner party, several of the guests were arguing whether men or women were more trustworthy.

"No woman," said one man, scornfully, "can keep a secret."

"I don't know about that," answered a woman guest.

"I have kept my age a secret since I was twenty-one."

"You'll let it out some day," the man insisted.

"I hardly think so!" responded the lady.

"When a woman has kept a secret for twenty-seven years, she can keep it forever."

In an upscale pet-supply store,
a customer wanted to buy a red sweater for her dog. The clerk suggested that she bring her dog in for a proper fit.

"I can't do that!" the lady said.

"The sweater is a surprise!"

Introducing Allen & Wright Classic Roast Coffee.

Great news for coffee lovers.

Ray Allen and Frank Wright founded A&W over 20 years ago with a passion for quality. And when it comes to coffee, that quality lives on in our new brew. Allen & Wright Classic Roast uses 100% Arabica beans, which make a better cup of coffee. They're ground fresh for every pot -- the end result being a flavorful and aromatic cup, that tastes right every time. A&W. It's all in the details.

THE WORLD ACCORDING TO BRUCE I AM THANKFUL.....

...for the mess to clean after a party because it means I have been surrounded by friends.

...for the clothes that fit a little too snug because it means I have enough to eat.

...for a lawn that needs mowing, windows that need cleaning and gutters that need fixing because it means I have a home.

...for the spot I find at the far end of the parking lot because it means I am capable of walking.

...for the lady behind me in church who sings off key because it means that I can hear.

...for the piles of laundry and ironing because it means I have clothes to wear.

...for weariness and aching muscles at the end of the day because it means I have been productive.

...for the alarm that goes off in the early morning hours because it means that I am alive.

An absent-minded husband thought he had conquered his problem of trying to remember his wife's birthday and their anniversary. He opened an account with a florist, provided that florist with the dates and instructions to send flowers to his wife on these dates along with an appropriate note signed, "Your loving husband." His wife was thrilled by this new display of attention and all went well until next year, on their anniversary, when he came home, kissed his wife and said off-handedly, "Nice flowers, honey. Where'd you get them?"

My husband and I took our two-year-old daughter to the home improvement store. Madison got tired of walking, so my husband let her ride on his shoulders. As he walked, Madison began pulling his hair. Although he asked her to stop several times, she kept on. Getting annoyed, he scolded, "Madison! Stop that!" "But, Daddy," she replied, "I'm just trying to get my gum back."
